

General Terms and Conditions and Terms of Participation

§1 General Remarks

The General Terms and Conditions and Terms of Participation described below apply for all participants in the public ski race "The White Ring – The Race". The race is organized by Lech-Zürs Tourismus GmbH (Dorf 164, 6764 Lech, +43 5583 2161-0). The organizer reserves the right to make any changes in the present regulations.

- 1.1 The White Ring offers a challenge with about 22 km of ski runs and 5,500 meters of altitude on easy and moderately difficult ski runs. The race starts at Rüfikopf mountain (2350 m) and the finish is at Lech am Arlberg (1450 m). The organizing committee can change the route in exceptional circumstances.
- 1.2 Participants must be at least 16 years old. Participants under the age of 18 require the consent of a legal guardian. The legal guardian must be present when the bib numbers are handed out and sign the Terms of Participation. A safe skiing ability is a prerequisite for participation.
- 1.3 By participating in the White Ring Race, the participants fully accept the general terms and conditions and the supplementary information. In the case of registration of an own starting place by an authorized third person, this person is authorized to accept the General Terms and Conditions on my behalf. Participants take note of the fact that the race may be held on a partly unprepared track. The insurance coverage in the event of an accident is the responsibility of each participant. Participants assume sole responsibility for their responsibility for their driving and release the organizer from any liability.

§2 Race Equipment

- 2.1 Only participants with skis or snowboards will be allowed to participate.
- 2.2 All participants are required to wear a helmet (tested to CE standard). Compliance with the helmet requirement will be checked at the start. Mountaineering helmets, ice hockey helmets, bicycle racing helmets or similar are not allowed. Violation will result in disqualification.
- 2.3 Racing suits are prohibited. The adapted rules of FIS Ski Cross (ICR) shall apply for clothing. There must be a clearance of at least 80 mm between the material and the body in the legs and thighs down to the ski boots. The clearance at the elbows and in the biceps area must be 60 mm.

§3 Rules of Conduct

- 3.1 The ten FIS rules of conduct apply and must be observed by every participant. A disregard leads to disqualification.
- 3.2 All participants must pass through all gates. Participants who may miss the flag lead to disqualification. The race management reserves the right, if the snow, slope and/or weather conditions require it additional gates in addition to those on the published course.
- 3.3 When the yellow flag is waves &/or a sound signal from the whistle by the track marshal, it is important to drive with extreme caution (ready to break) and to follow the instructions of the track staff. The participants have to adjust their driving to the fact that several riders are using the same track at the same time.
- 3.4 When the red flag is waves &/or a sound signal from the whistle, participants are obliged to stop immediately and follow the instructions of the track staff. Failure to do so will result in disqualification.

§4 Start order, start interval, start number distribution

- 4.1 The starting numbers will initially be drawn on the basis of the best results achieved in the last years (overall ranking list) of a participant. Participants who have not won an award in the last three races or are starting for the first time, will be allocated numbers at the back of the start list. These numbers will be drawn randomly with an algorithm.
- 4.2 The starting number can be improved by participating in the REMUS Team Challenge, on Thursday, January 16, 2025. All information is available on the homepage.
- 4.3 The start is in blocks of 2 in an interval of 10 seconds each.
- 4.4 Start numbers will be issued at the Lechwelten (Dorf 100, 6764 Lech). Participants must collect their starting numbers personally on site and sign the general terms and conditions. On Friday, January 17th, 2025, the start numbers can be picked up between 1 pm and 7 pm. On Saturday, January 18, between 7 am and 8 am.
- 4.5 The start number must be worn clearly visible during the entire race. Any changes that make the the start number unrecognizable, will lead to disqualification.
- 4.6 An exchange of already assigned start numbers among eligible team members is not possible. Participation under a false name will result in immediate disqualification.
- 4.7 Each start number receives an additional transponder incl. fixing strap for timekeeping. This timekeeping transponder is the property of Datasport AG. Without a start number and the fixing strap, scoring is not possible. After crossing the finish line, the transponder & start number must be handed in immediately to the helpers provided for this purpose. If the race is cancelled, it must be handed in at the Lech Zürs Tourist Information Office/Dorfhus. Lost and non-returned transponders will be charged to the participant with € 70,-. A missing or broken start number will be charged with another € 50,-.

§5 Course Inspection

The course inspection takes place exclusively online, no inspection (or training) before the race in the skiing area! The course incl. all gates will be made available in advance exclusively on the homepage www.derweissering.ski by means of GPS data. The gates can be moved slightly different on the race day than on the homepage, if the race management deems it necessary for safety reasons.
